Congregations

- Trinity North Uniting Church has merged from three worshipping communities to two. The first service of the new Carine/Duncraig Worshipping Community was held on 1 January 2017. Attendees gathered at both the Wandoo Rd and St Stephen's Worshipping Centres for a short service, before those at Wandoo Rd progressed to St Stephen's to end the service. Rev Steve Francis, Moderator of the Uniting Church WA, preached at the service.
- Merebani means kindness, and that is what this musical concert is about. This is a joint initiative of South Perth and Nedlands Uniting Churches, with the additional support of Mt Pleasant Uniting Church. It is being held at South Perth Uniting Church, 2 Sandgate St, South Perth on Saturday 18 February, 5.00 to 7.00pm. All proceeds go to the Nedlands Refugee Group to provide practical assistance to asylum seekers in our local community. $15 per ticket. Book online via the TryBooking website using either of these links: <https://www.trybooking.com/OHBP> or <https://www.trybooking.com/250837>. For more information, or if the online tickets are sold out, call Judy Siddins on 0419 787 862 or John Broadbent on 0402 926 781.
- Uniting Church in the City, Ross Memorial West Perth, holds a French Conversation Group each 2nd and 4th Monday of the month. The group meet in the meeting room adjacent to the church from 5.30 to 6.45pm, and is led by Dr Philip Winn. They discuss items of interest, listen to and speak about French songs, as well as covering international, local and personal items of interest. Participants are expected to be able to hold a conversation in French, but need not necessarily be fluent. There is a small cost. For more info call 6103 4222.

- Drinks at the Well is a safe space to ask the deeper questions in life. The group meets monthly in a cafe or bar in Margaret River, and share what has been working for them in their spiritual journeys. They hope to create a small community where there is no right or wrong answers, only good questions. The next meeting will be held on 7 March. For more info email deepwaterdwelling@gmail.com.
  - A celebration of 60 years since the ordination of Rev John Phillipson will be held during Sunday worship on 26 February 9.15am, at Willetton Uniting Church, followed by morning tea. An invitation is extended to all who wish to join with John and his family for this celebration. RSVP to lkstokes@iinet.net.au by 22 February for catering purposes.
  - Under the auspices of the Margaret River Uniting Church, in conjunction with Swan Institute Australia (SIA), the Margaret River English Language Institute (MRELI) will commence on 20 March 2017. MRELI is a language institute for the purposes of learning English as a second language. It is an accredited training program with a qualified teacher. It is open to any person who does not have English as their first language, regardless of gender, ethnic background, age, race or disability. Email mreli@bigpond.com to receive further enrollment information and go to the MRELI Facebook page to keep informed.
  - On Wednesday 15 March from 4.00 to 5.00pm, an Amnesty Letter Writing group will meet at Wembley Downs Uniting Church. The group will continue to meet on the third Wednesday of the month. New members most welcome. For more info email Cynthia at cyntax@globaldial.com.

Presbytery of Western Australia

- A newsletter highlighting inspiring stories from congregations and faith communities within the Presbytery of Western Australia will be distributed on Tuesday 14 March. This is an opportunity to share your 'good news' stories of life within your community. To share your story, please contact Media and Communications on 9260 9800 or email revive@wa.uca.org.au by the deadline of Friday 24 February.

- The Uniting Church Mission Fellowship WA meets on the third Wednesday of each month, 10.00am in the Guild Room at Uniting Church in the City, Wesley Perth. On Wednesday 15 February, the speaker will be Rev Daniel Viljoen, mission development leader at UnitingCare West.
- Rev Sealin Garlett celebrated his retirement to a packed room on Sunday afternoon 18 December, at Len Packham Hall in Coolbellup. Sealin officially retired on 31 December 2016. Visit <https://revivemagazine.org.au/2016/12/21/a-celebration-of-ministry-leadership-and-unconditional-love/> to read more and view photos from the event.
- Summer Spirit will be held on Saturday 25 February at All Saints Floreat Uniting Church. The theme this year is 'New Ways of Being Church,' with keynote speakers Rev Dr John Squires and Rev Elizabeth Raine. There will also be a range of afternoon workshops, opening up a range of possibilities for further training for you and your congregation over the coming year. Cost is $90. Encourage a group to come from your congregation; enrol 5 people and get the 6th free. Registration forms have been sent out to congregations. For more info visit <https://revivemagazine.org.au/2017/01/03/inspiration-to-connect/>.
- You are invited to The Perth Theological Hall Commencement Service, including the Induction of Rev Dr John Squires as Director of Education and Formation for the Uniting Church WA. It will be held on Friday 24 February, 7.00pm, at Uniting Church in the City, Wesley Perth.

- The WA Uniting Church Adult Fellowship will be holding a planning day facilitated by Cindy Gorton, Safe Church/Royal Commission Officer at the Uniting Church WA. It will be held on Friday 17 March, 9.30am to 2.00pm with the theme: 'Planning, Networking and Safe Church for Groups.' All are welcome, RSVP to Aladina Foster at rayaladina@dodo.com.au or call 0428 821 657.
  - Rev Ivan Clark will be inducted at Noranda Uniting Church on Sunday 19 February at 2.00pm. All are welcome.
  - A Mission Shaped Ministry course can equip you for a lifetime of good practice and learning in planting and sustaining fresh expressions of church. Courses will be held from Friday 3 to Sunday 5 March, Saturday 27 May, Saturday 19 August and Friday 20 to Sunday 22 October. They will be held at the Uniting Church Campsite in Busselton. For more info email Rev Greg Ross at revgregross@icloud.com.
  - Vocational Education Training (VET) Courses for lay leaders are at an accessible education level, a reasonable cost and aim to develop skills and competencies. Nedlands Uniting Church has formed a partnership with the Adelaide College of Divinity to offer VET courses. Email stephen.larkin@nedlandsuniting.com for more info. Rev Alistair Melville is offering VET courses for rural congregations. Email alistair.melville@wa.uca.org.au for more info.
A group of Uniting Church ministers are also offering VET courses based on the 3DM program. For more info email mark.illingworth@wa.uca.org.au.

Synod of Western Australia

- The Social Justice Commission of the Uniting Church WA have prepared Election Resources for the upcoming Western Australian State Election. The material is non-party political, and seeks to get to the heart of issues facing Western Australia. Visit <https://election2017ucawa.wordpress.com/> to download the resources.

- On Tuesday 24 January 2017 all congregation contact profiles were imported into the new Wild Apricot database. Each congregation contact email address should have received an automatic email from the database with login information. If you have received this email, please log in to the database contact portal and check and/or update your congregation's information. If you are a congregation contact and you have not received an email please contact database@wa.uca.org.au with your congregation's current contact email address and the Media and Communications team will update the information and send an email.
- The Uniting Church WA is saddened to hear that Rev Jessie Allen-Williams passed away last week in Augusta. Please keep her family and friends in your thoughts and prayers during this time.
- The Synod of Western Australia is a member of Renew WA – a coalition of churches, unions, community groups, aid organisations, environmental groups, youth organisations and social service providers who support strengthened government action to address the causes and effects of climate change. The coalition wants WA to become a renewable energy superpower and says the government must commit to rapidly transitioning the state to renewables. Visit <http://unitingchurchwa.org.au/services/taking-a-stand/social-justice/environment/> for more info.
- The Uniting Church WA is saddened to hear of the passing of Rev Barry Angus. Please keep his family and friends in your prayers during this time.
- A group of religious leaders from the Uniting Church WA, Catholic priests, the Anglican Social Responsibilities Commission and Churches of Christ in WA joined Indigenous leaders to oppose the construction of the controversial Roe 8 highway through the Beelir Wetlands. Visit <https://revivemagazine.org.au/2017/02/07/church-leaders-oppose-roe-8/> to read more.

- A diverse group of 40 signatories representing Western Australian health professionals, religious leaders, farmers, renewable industry experts, environmentalists and unions have launched a joint statement calling on all parties leading into the WA elections to provide decisive action against climate change. The Uniting Church WA is among them, with the acting Moderator, Rev Ken Williams, launching the campaign. - The Uniting Church WA congratulates Keith Stockins from Mandurah Uniting Church for his nomination for the Active Citizen award from the City of Mandurah. Keith received a certificate on Australia Day. Mandurah Uniting Church congratulate Keith for all the work he has done within the congregation, Uniting Outreach Mandurah and FinUCAre.

From the National Church

- Stuart McMillan, President of the Uniting Church in Australia, and Rev Dennis Corowa, National Chairperson of the Uniting Aboriginal and Islander Christian Congress (UAICC) have signed an open letter to the Prime Minister expressing their concern about proposed cuts to Community Legal Centres (CLC) who provide free legal assistance to vulnerable and disadvantaged people across Australia. Visit <https://assembly.uca.org.au/news/item/2542-uniting-church-plea-for-legal-assistance-funding> to read more.
- The Assembly of the Uniting Church in Australia will implement a collaborative, project-based way of working in 2017. To facilitate this transition Assembly General Secretary Colleen Geyer has notified staff of an organisational restructure. Assembly staff in Uniting Faith and Discipleship, Finance and Administration and Communications will be reorganised into two new units – the Assembly Resourcing Unit and Assembly Support Services. It is anticipated that these changes will lead to an overall loss of 1.5 positions in these areas. Visit <https://assembly.uca.org.au/news/item/2555-assembly-new-ways-of-working> to read more.

- The Uniting Church in Australia is preparing to farewell its lead national justice advocate Rev Elenie Poulos. After 15 years as National Director of UnitingJustice Australia, Elenie has accepted a scholarship to complete her PhD at Macquarie University. From climate change to nuclear disarmament, justice for Indigenous Australians, principles of economic justice, discrimination on grounds of race, religion or sexuality – Elenie has written the Uniting church's policies and submissions and been the face and voice of the Church's public advocacy. Visit <https://assembly.uca.org.au/news/item/2556-my-peace-i-leave-with-you> to read more.
- About FACE (Faith and Cultural Exchange) is a faith and cultural exchange program celebrating the covenantal relationship between the Uniting Church in Australia and the Uniting Aboriginal and Islander Christian Congress (UAICC). The next program will take place from Saturday 24 June to Saturday 8 July and involves time spent in a UAICC community. Visit <http://aboutface.org.au/> for more info.
- In 2017, Frontier Services celebrates 105 years of service to the people of remote Australia. In this 40th anniversary year of the Union of the Uniting Church Frontier Services invite congregations to join in communion with our outback brothers and sisters who live with physical isolation, poor or non-existing services, and whose working lives are affected by drought, flood, fire and distance. A downloadable order of service, With the People, is available at <https://frontierservices.org/blog/2017-order-of-service-with-the-people>.

- UnitingWorld's Lent Event will this year be held from 1 March to 15 April. Resources include daily reflections emailed directly to you, six inspiring videos about the communities Lent Event supports, stickers to encourage giving, instructions for how to host a South Sudanese Feast or a Water Walk, and a new website. For more info call Fiona on (02) 8267 4262 or visit www.lentevent.com.
- Queensland Uniting Church minister and children's author Paul Clark has released another two exciting picture books that make great resources for Ministry. Beautiful Australia tells the story of three Aussie animals looking for the perfect land down under; a great way to explore perfection. The Unhappy Star tells the story of the Christmas star as she finds her purpose. For more information visit <http://carparkparables.org/product-category/others/>

UnitingCare and Congregational Community Services

- Chairperson of the UnitingCare West Board, Peter Fitzpatrick, and the General Secretary of the Uniting Church WA, Rev David de Kock, take great pleasure in announcing the appointment of Amanda Hunt as the next Chief Executive Officer of UnitingCare West (UCW). Amanda Hunt comes to UnitingCare West from the position of State Manager, Mission Australia – WA and SA. Amanda will bring energy, enthusiasm and strong leadership and management to the position. Visit <https://revivemagazine.org.au/2016/12/21/unitingcare-west-announces-next-ceo/> to read more.
- Creative Ministries Network, a UnitingCare agency in Victoria, has released a Lenten studies resource available for purchase. The five studies integrate reflection on the lectionary's Sunday Gospel readings with the experience of work; including paid work, work in the home, and voluntary work. Cost is $24. For more info, and to purchase, email John at johnbottomley@netspace.net.au.

- All UnitingCare West volunteers are invited to join with UnitingCare West at the Uniting Church in the City on Saturday 18 February from 1.30pm to 4.00pm to acknowledge the difference they are making through volunteering - helping people in need. It will be the perfect occasion to meet some of the UnitingCare West staff and other volunteers. There will be music, fun activities and some delicious food to enjoy together.
- The Uniting Church WA congratulates Vaughan Harding, who was awarded the Medal (OAM) of the Order of Australia, this Australia Day. Vaughan was awarded the medal for his service to aged care organisations. He has served as the CEO of Juniper since 1992 and is also a past national committee member of UnitingCare Australia and a past chair of the Aged Care Network.
- UnitingCare West CEO, Sue Ash, will be farewelled in the middle of March. UnitingCare West will be putting together a book of greetings for Sue as part of their farewell activities. Members of Uniting Church congregations are invited to contribute to this book by sending greetings to Sue either by email to Sue Thomas sue.thomas@unitingcarewest.org.au or by mail addressed to Sue Thomas, Executive Assistant to the CEO, UnitingCare West 16 Sunbury Rd, Victoria Park. All contributions will need to be received no later than 15 March. The next CEO of UnitingCare West, Amanda Hunt, takes over as CEO on 5 April.
- UnitingCare West would like to acknowledge their relationship with the Uniting Church schools in Western Australia. For many years the Uniting Church schools have been great supporters of the organisation's mission by collecting and gifting a great diversity of donations. These contributions to UnitingCare West's services include clothing and shoes, non-perishable food as well as freshly baked goods, care and hygiene packs, items to support struggling families, volunteer hours and financial donations. Much gratitude to the difference WA's young minds and hearts are making by supporting the Uniting Church agencies through community service and fundraising.

- Claerwen Little says her key focus as the new national director of UnitingCare Australia will be to ensure that the agency is a strong and respected voice in Canberra and across the nation achieving change for those who are most vulnerable. Having recently commenced in the role, Claerwen says she is excited by what the UnitingCare network can achieve together. Visit <https://revivemagazine.org.au/2017/02/08/unitingcare-aims-for-strong-voice-on-social-justice/> to read more.
- The Warehouse Gallery, nestled in the heart of the Shenton Park community, is proud to launch their summer exhibition called New Lease on Life. The programs and exhibitions at The Warehouse Gallery aim to encourage the participants' arts practice, develop new skills by exhibiting work in a safe space, and to provide a sense of belonging.

Ecumenical and International

- Applications are now open for the Nonviolent Interfaith Leadership Program, which will be held in Melbourne from 2 to 7 April 2017. This program involves a 5-day residential retreat for 20 people to explore nonviolent leadership and how to sustain change, go deeper and to bring people together. It specialises in integrating the inner contemplative life and the outer life of activism and advocacy in a deeply inspiring co-learning multi-faith environment. Visit <http://www.nonviolentinterfaithleadership.org/applications/> for more info and to find out how to apply.
- Whadjuk Bibbulman Katijiny will be an event to discuss issues affecting Aboriginal ministry, including yarning time, church in the park, funeral ministry, Nyungar cosmology and spirituality, and a panel discussion on Aboriginal ministry in schools and agencies. It will be held on Saturday 18 February at the Wollaston Conference Centre. Rev Sealin Garlett will be preaching during the closing service. Creed: What Christians believe and why, exploring the Apostles' Creed, by Adam Hamilton. "In the end, belief is a decision of the will... For Christians; the beliefs expressed in the Apostles' Creed are foundational. In this book we'll consider those beliefs and begin a conversation about what Christians believe, why they believe it, and why it matters." – from the introduction.

How God Became King: The forgotten story of the Gospels, by NT Wright. Why did Matthew, Mark, Luke and John tell their story or stories in the ways they did? What story or stories do these writers think they are telling? The story that the four evangelists tell is the story of “how God became king... Can we learn to read the gospels better, more in tune with what their original writers intended? Can we grow closer in mission and life, in faith and hope, and even in love? Is that what it would look like if we really believed that the living God was king on earth as in heaven?” $24.99

Responding to God’s Call: Christian formation today, by Jeremy Worthen. This book explores formation as the ways in which Christians are shaped for vocation, and the ways in which we hear and respond to God’s call. A resource for all with responsibility for nurturing discipleship and vocation – whether it is our shared call to grow into the fullness of our baptismal calling, or a distinctive vocation to ordained or lay ministry, or religious life. $40.95

Subtle Bricks Theatre Company: Short sketches for the church year, Volume 2, Load bearing walls, compiled by J S Hudson. Sketches are just that, not the full painting; just enough information for the audience to understand who the character are and what’s going on. In this book of sketches to make people think and to make people laugh it tackles “The Church”, “Well, if it’s in the Bible...”, “I Don’t Understand”, “What About Us?”, and “The Seasons”. $29.95

Messy Easter: 3 complete sessions and a treasure trove of ideas for Lent, Holy Week and Easter by Jane Leadbetter. An activity based learning resource to help families engage with the real story of Easter. A monthly Messy Church or a community Easter celebration or a special service for your congregation. $15.45

All prices plus postage and packing.
