2019 WOMEN'S WEEKEND AWAY

Weaving Wisdom and Wonder

During the weekend we will explore how our life stories interweave with our faith stories. Together, we will discover how to create wonderful patterns of wisdom and wonder at God's grace and hope in everyday situations. We will spend time learning how faith stories through the ages have encouraged and motivated people – even people with a negative view of life. We will engage in creative expressions of faith and story-telling, we will listen with wonder and expectation to stories of faith, and journey together through a weekend of fellowship, food and fun.

REV EMMA MATTHEWS is a minister of the Uniting Church serving on the Education Team for the Presbytery of WA. She is a trained teacher, counsellor and group facilitator, and she enjoys leading retreats encouraging people to connect with God creatively, cognitively and collectively.

ACCOMMODATION AND MEETING ROOM

We will be staying at Lavender House which is on your right as you drive up Yule Avenue.

Eat before you come or bring your own meal but be aware there are no facilities for heating food at Lavender House.

All sessions will be held in the carpeted and heated Alfred Guy Hall located directly in front of the dining room.

WELCOME

We look forward to welcoming you from 5.00 pm on Friday 21 June.

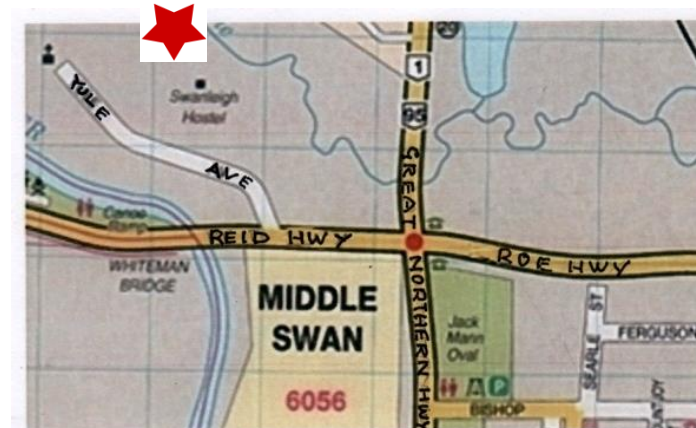

Our first session starts at 7.00 pm when we'll catch up with old friends and new, and Emma will introduce us to the theme for the weekend through an interactive exploration of who we are as the body of Christ gathered together for the weekend.
