FOOTNOTES:

First and foremost make sure people and property are safe from injury or further damage. In some cases this may involve contacting emergency services. You have an obligation under your policy to take reasonable steps to prevent further loss or damage. At all times be aware of and comply with your duty of disclosure.

PUBLIC LIABILITY

FOOTNOTES:

Due to the complex nature of liability claims and the different parties that are involved there isn't a standard claim form that would capture this information. As such we would request notification as soon as UCIS are aware of any circumstances which may give rise to a claim and we can advise dependant on the situation the best course of action for claim lodgement
