Summer Spirit

Ride the Wild Water

Navigating the Way

SAVE THE DATE

21 & 22 February 2025

Being a Christian in today's world can feel a little like navigating our way through wild rapids.

How do our faith communities connect with the wider community?

How do we approach mission in a world that seems disinterested?

How do we find new ways to be the church in a changing world?

Summer Spirit 2025 will explore how we might navigate our way and ride the wild water together.

Keynote Speaker

Michael Frost

Mike Frost is an internationally recognised Australian missiologist and one of the leading voices in the missional church movement.

His books are required reading in colleges and seminaries around the world and he is much sought after as an international conference speaker.

He is the author or editor of nineteen theological books, his most recent being (2024 Christian Shortlist Book of the Year) Mission is the Shape of Water (2023). Mike's presentations at Summer Spirit 2025 will draw upon his work in this book.

Mike is also well known for his protests against Australia's treatment of refugees, some of which have resulted in his arrest by the NSW police, as well as his advocacy for racial reconciliation, foreign aid, and gender equality.

Alexandra Sangster

Alex Sangster is a writer, actor, mother, and a minister with the St Kilda Southport Uniting Church. She has spent the last twenty years working with families in crisis, older folk, youth, refugees, and those experiencing homelessness.

She is active in several spheres within the church and beyond including on justice and environmental issues.

Alex is currently working with people experiencing mental health and housing vulnerabilities.

She is an actor and facilitator with Melbourne Playback and is known for her creative worship in church circles. Alex will use her creativity to help us integrate our learning from the weekend.

In Alex's recent book, 'Do they make coffins that small?: Ministry in an age of uncertainty', she shares her passion to discover ways that liberate, inspire and awaken; and suggests how the emerging church can connect with those who are spiritually hungry but culturally anti-institution.
